Be Your Own Pet, The Scala, London

Continued ...

It's obvious that Jemima Pearl is the main draw of Be Your Own Pet. Her undeniable beauty can't be ignored but it's the sweet and sour mix of wholesome all-American cheerleader and vicious punk rock princess that's the most compelling, and her attitude is by far the most interesting and genuine thing about the band. Stein, Vasquez and Eatherly create a wonderful world of noise for her to scream over but they suffer, a little unfairly I admit, from the fact that there are, potentially, any number of boys who could step in to their shoes. Jemima Pearl's battered Converse are all her own.
